

Divine Prayer

I know that there is a perfect law of supply and demand. My motives are right, and I desire to do the right thing in the right way at all times. I am instantly in touch with everything I need. I am in my true place now. I am giving of my talents in a wonderful way and I am Divinely blessed. Infinite Intelligence is guiding me now in thought, word and deed, and whatever I do is controlled by God and God alone. I am a perfect channel of God.

I feel, know and believe that my God-self illuminates my pathway. Divine Intelligence inspires, directs and governs me in all my undertakings and instantaneously reveals to me the answer to all things I need to know. Divine Love goes before me, making all roads a highway of peace, love, joy and happiness.

It is wonderful!
